ROGER DURLING '86

Roger Durling has been the executive director of the Santa Barbara International Film Festival for 23 years, and he has been teaching film studies at the Santa Barbara City College for just as long. His essay on Julian Schnabel's Basquiat is included in the recent Criterion Collection Blu-Ray release of the film. He helped edit the book Roma by Alfonso Cuarón (Assouline), and his book Cinema in Flux: A Year of Connecting Through Film, which is comprised of his film essays written during the COVID-19 pandemic, was published in 2021.

Roger earned a B.S. degree from the Department of Drama in Syracuse University's College of Visual and Performing Arts and an M.F.A. from Columbia University. He is the vice chair of the board of trustees of The Peddie School in Hightstown, New Jersey. He was named Citizen of the Year in 2004 by the city of Santa Barbara and a Local Hero in 2023. He was born and raised in Panama, and Spanish is his first language.

APHRODITE GIOULEKAS '25

Aphrodite Gioulekas, originally from Melbourne, Australia, is graduating with a bachelor of fine arts degree in fashion design and a minor in retail management. During her time at Syracuse, she found a balance between creative exploration and competitive athletics, often jumping from the studio to the boathouse and back again.

As a two-time captain of the Syracuse University Women's Rowing Team, Aphrodite helped lead her crew to a historic, first-ever ACC Championship in 2024 and earned All-ACC First Team honors. She has been recognized with several academic and design awards, including the 2025 Elisa Ribatt Memorial Prize for outstanding senior in fashion design, the 2024 Fashion Without Limits competition, VPA Scholar, and consistent placement on the VPA Dean's List.

Aphrodite's design philosophy centers on inclusivity, intention, and storytelling. Through Solace Collective, a startup launched alongside fellow Syracuse students focused on clothing for neurodivergent individuals, she designed and prototyped apparel while helping pitch the brand to secure funding. She also helped launch Major Mag, a student-run fashion publication created in collaboration with majors across the University, uniting voices from design, writing, photography, and more to spotlight campus culture and creativity.

In addition, Aphrodite contributed original looks to SU Fashion and Design Society and created custom gear for the rowing team, blending creativity with function. She also served as a teaching assistant and moderated a panel at VPA Industry Day, fostering dialogue across creative disciplines.

Aphrodite is deeply grateful for the people and experiences that have shaped her time at Syracuse. As she looks ahead, hopefully to New York City, she plans to keep designing with curiosity, compassion, and the reminder: Go Cuse!
